A word from Elsie

God's Steady Presence

Remembrance Sunday is a time to remember all those who have lost their lives in conflicts, as well as those who continue to suffer because of war and persecution. Sadly, we live in a troubled world where conflict continues to bring loss, suffering and fear to countless lives.

Psalm 46 reminds us that God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in times of trouble. In a world that can often feel uncertain and unstable, we are invited to rest in the quiet assurance that God is with us and holds us securely in His hands.

The challenges you and I face today may not be directly related to war or persecution, but health concerns, financial pressures and family difficulties can leave us feeling anxious, overwhelmed, or afraid. In the midst of these struggles, the words of Psalm 46:10, "Be still, and know that I am God," invite us to pause, quieten our hearts and remember that God is present with us. Whatever circumstances we face, His peace and strength remain available to us.

As we remember those affected by conflict and persecution, may we also be reminded that God has not abandoned His world. He is our refuge in times of fear, our strength in times of weakness, and our constant presence in every uncertainty.
